

HAWAII

A Nine-Day Sample Itinerary

Big Island → Maui → Kauai

APPROXIMATE BUDGET Around ₹2,00,000 per person, excluding flights to Hawaii	BEST TIME TO VISIT January – March for good weather and October for fewer crowds
---	--

A first look at how three islands come together in nine days: volcanoes and stargazing on the Big Island, waterfalls and rainforest drives on Maui, and dramatic coastal lookouts on Kauai. Every Just Go trip is shaped around a vetted local expert and adjusted to your pace; this is simply a starting point.

DAY	BASE	THEME	SAMPLE PLAN
1	Big Island	Welcome to the Big Island	Arrive on Hawai'i Island; settle in around Kona, with time for Ali'i Drive and a sunset over the coast.
2	Big Island	Volcanoes and Lava Fields	Spend the day at Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park, walking the Kilauea Iki trail and driving Chain of Craters Road down to the sea.
3	Big Island	Waterfalls and Stargazing	Explore the Hamakua Coast's waterfalls by day, then head up to Mauna Kea for sunset and stargazing.
4	Maui	The Road to Hana	Fly to Maui and take on the Road to Hana, stopping at waterfalls, black sand beaches, and roadside fruit stands along the way.
5	Maui	★ JUST GO HIGHLIGHT West Maui Forest Reserve	Drive the winding, little-traveled road through the West Maui Forest Reserve connecting Wailuku to the Kahekili Highway, one of the island's most scenic and underrated drives.
6	Maui	Haleakalā and the Coast	Rise early for sunrise at Haleakalā National Park's summit, then spend the afternoon at one of West Maui's beaches.
7	Kauai	The Nāpali Coast	Fly to Kauai; spend the afternoon on the Nāpali Coast, by boat, helicopter, or the coastal hike from Ke'e Beach.
8	Kauai	Kalalau Lookout	Drive up through Waimea Canyon and on past Waimea Lookout without stopping, continuing all the way to Kalalau Lookout for the best views over the Nāpali cliffs.
9	Kauai	Last Day in Kauai	A relaxed final day at Poipu Beach or Hanalei Bay before departing.
